Level 4

Smart Choices

Complete Lesson Guide · Ages 11-13 · CEFR A1

20 Lessons | 4 Bonus Classes | 221 Words | 13 Grammar Topics

Hey, I'm Ziad! Time to talk money, routines, and smart decisions.

Everyday decision-making in English: routines, money, requests, and advice -- the language your child needs to navigate real choices, not just describe the world around them.

By the end of this level, your child can:

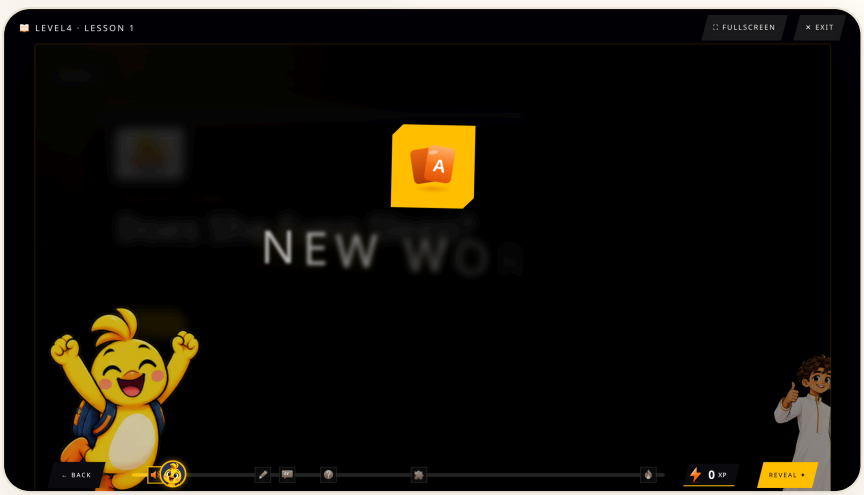

- Describe routines with frequency words (always, never, how often)
- Talk about sequence (before and after)
- Ask politely and talk about possessions
- Ask about prices and talk about saving money
- Make polite requests ("I'd like...")
- Give and receive advice ("you should")
- Talk about future plans and the wider world

Sample vocabulary

routine روتين | snack وجبة خفيفة | advice نصيحة

Grammar

Frequency adverbs, possessives, requests with "I'd like", modals like "should" -- one grammar point per lesson with its own Grammar Hub rule page, building toward real decision-making conversation.

A real vocabulary slide from Lesson 1 — picture, Arabic, example sentence and audio

How this level is taught

1. Prepare in the app
   Before each live class, your child meets the lesson's new words, sounds and sentences on their own, so they arrive ready.

2. Live class on Microsoft Teams
   A real teacher leads the same lesson in a small group of up to four students at this level, with a supervisor on hand.

3. Homework
   Spelling, drawing or writing, Say It and a short quiz, all tied to that lesson; plus a printable worksheet, writing sheet and flashcards.

4. Grow on the map
   Every finished lesson lights up the next step on the adventure map and unlocks that lesson's bonus game.

The Smart Choices Hub

Open any time, not just during lessons: Vocabulary, Idioms, Writing & Speaking, Grammar (page 10). And after every finished lesson, a new round of this level's bonus game, Squad Budget, unlocks (page 11).

Every lesson has the same shape: new words with pictures, Arabic and audio → listening and matching practice → a grammar point → a short quiz and spelling → homework, a printable worksheet and flashcards. Lesson 20 is the level's Big Review.

Live classes run 45–90 minutes depending on the lesson: a little shorter at the start of the level, and the full 90 minutes for the Big Review in Lesson 20. Each Bonus Class runs 60 minutes.

Four Bonus Classes: how English works

A level is 24 live classes: the 20 lessons plus a Bonus Class after every four lessons. Each Bonus Class (60 minutes) explains how English really works — sounds, spelling, grammar or word history — compares it with Arabic, and practises it with games and creative tasks. After it, your child does a special bonus mission at home.

B1 The -s Mystery and the Time Triangle لغز حرف -s ومثلث الوقت

After Lesson 4

English verbs once had an ending for almost every person, like Arabic verbs do; today only he/she/it keeps one (-s), and it has three sounds. For time, think of a triangle: at a point, on a day, in a longer period.

B2 How English Counts the World كيف تَعُدّ الإنجليزية العالم

After Lesson 8

Every language draws its own map of the world: English decides that some things are counted (a coin, two coins) and some are measured (money, information), even when Arabic counts them; and English uses one 'you' where Arabic has five.

B3 Word Builders: Roots, Prefixes and Suffixes بُناة الكلمات: الجذور والسوابق واللواحق

After Lesson 12

English builds many new words like Lego, by adding pieces to the front and back of a word (happy → unhappy → unhappiness); Arabic weaves vowels and extra letters around a root (usually three letters) (ك ت ب → كاتب، مكتب، مكتبة). Know the pieces and you can understand words you have never seen.

B4 Polite English: Sounding Kind and Clear كيف تبدو الإنجليزية المهذّبة: لطيفاً وواضحاً

After Lesson 16

Politeness is built differently in each language: Arabic often makes a direct request polite with formulas (لو سمحت، من فضلك, and in spoken Arabic يخليك الله), while English makes it polite with indirect questions and modals (Could you..., Would you mind..., I'd like...). So a word-for-word translation like 'Give me water' can sound rude in English, even with please.

wake up | study | practice | hang out
relax | chill | nap | hobby
alarm | energy | routine

Lesson 1 flashcards (print double-sided)

Who they're for, and why

Writing practice: Your child continues writing three original sentences using that day's real grammar pattern -- for example, Present Simple Questions in Lesson 1. This is production, not recognition: applying the rule just learned, in a sentence your child builds themselves, not one picked from a list.

Flashcards: Every card shows the picture and English word on one side and the Arabic translation on the other. That means either parent can quiz their teen at home, even without speaking English themselves -- a quick flip-through is real, screen-free repetition that keeps vocabulary fresh alongside the grammar work.

Squad Budget, this level's bonus game

A shopping-list budgeting game that also practices real conversation: most rounds have your child "buy" items from an Arabic shopping list, and a couple of rounds ask what comes next in a real chat between friends.

How to play

1. Shopping rounds: an Arabic shopping list appears with priced market stalls -- your child listens for the word Lumi says, then taps the matching stall to "buy" it. A correct purchase adds it to a running receipt and deducts its price; a wrong tap costs nothing, and by the end the receipt shows everything bought plus coins left over.
2. Conversation rounds: two lines of a real back-and-forth chat appear, and your child picks what really comes next from three options -- genuine dialogue practice, not just vocabulary.

A new round of the game unlocks after every lesson your child finishes, using that lesson's own words — so it is always practice, never random.
