3 Reading: What Can Ziad Do? On my own · وحدي

ماذا يستطيع زياد أن يفعل؟

Read the Reading Lab text again. Answer in full sentences.

Ziad can't swim, and he can't bake a cake. But Ziad can do something his friends can't: he can code. He has a small app that tells you when the next prayer is. It is his own app, and his mother uses it every day.

This summer, Riyadh has a huge gaming festival. Thousands of fans come to watch the best teams in the world. Ziad wants to go, but not as a fan. He wants to perform on the stage one day.

So every afternoon, he practices. He can solve a puzzle game in two minutes. He can edit videos of his games and post them. He can even draw his own game characters.

His father is not sure. "Can you do your homework too?" he asks. Ziad smiles. "I can," he says, "and I can teach you to play." His father laughs. He can't say no to that.

1 Name two things Ziad can't do and three things he can do.

2 What does Ziad's app do?

3 Why does Ziad's father ask about homework?

4 Can you code, edit videos or draw? Which skill do you want to learn?
