Level 5

Telling My Story

Complete Level Guide · Ages 12-14 · CEFR A2

20 Lessons + 4 Bonus Classes | 24 Live Classes | 229 Words | 10 Grammar Topics

Hi, I'm Noor! Get ready to tell real stories about your own life.

The past tense arrives here: what happened, when, and why. Your child moves from describing the present to genuinely telling stories -- their weekend, a trip, a party, a mistake -- in connected, real narrative.

By the end of this level, your child can:

- Talk about what happened yesterday or last weekend
- Ask and answer questions in the past ("Did you...?")
- Describe how something was and why it happened
- Tell a story in order (first, then, finally)
- Describe what was happening at a specific moment
- Talk about a trip, a party, or a memorable day
- Read a short story and answer questions about it

Sample vocabulary

proud فخور nervous متوتر packed حزم
flew سافر بالطائرة
suitcase حقيبة سفر
guests ضيوف

Grammar

Past simple (regular and irregular), past questions and negatives, was/were, there was/were, time words, sequencing words, because, and the past continuous -- one grammar point per lesson with practice, the common mistakes Arabic speakers make, and a Grammar Hub rule page.

How this level is taught

1 Prepare in the app
Before each live class, your child meets the lesson's new words, sounds and sentences on their own, so they arrive ready.

2 Live class on Microsoft Teams
A real teacher leads the lesson for a small group of up to four students at the same level and lesson, with a supervisor on hand.

3 Homework
Spelling, Say It, Talk, a phonics or grammar step, and a short quiz, all tied to that lesson; plus a printable homework sheet and flashcards.

4 Grow on the map
A lesson counts as done after prep, the live class and homework. Then the next stop on the adventure map lights up.

One level = 24 live classes, about 3 months

20 lessons plus 4 Bonus Classes (after Lessons 4, 8, 12 and 16), at 2–3 classes a week. Lessons run 45–90 minutes — shorter at the start of the level, the full 90 minutes for the Big Review in Lesson 20. Each Bonus Class runs 60 minutes.

The Telling My Story Hub and game

Open any time, not just during lessons: Vocabulary, Idioms, Writing & Speaking, Grammar, Songs, Word games (page 12). After every finished lesson, a new round of this level's game, Story Detective, unlocks (page 14).

Inside a live class

Every lesson in Level 5 follows the same order, so your child always knows what comes next. The teacher shares the lesson on screen and every student takes part: tapping answers, speaking, playing for stars. Arabic is there whenever it helps: every word has its Arabic meaning, and grammar rules come with an Arabic explanation.

1 Hook

One question to get everyone talking about the lesson's topic.

2 First Listen and Crew Talk

A real conversation between the Crew, with recorded voices, read and acted out.

3 Grammar Time

Notice the pattern, learn the rule, practise it, then 10 Grammar Checks and Common Mistakes that Arabic speakers make.

4 New words

Verbs first, then words and phrases, each with a picture, Arabic and audio, then 10 Vocabulary Checks.

5 Describe It and Build the Sentences

Students describe a picture and build full sentences with the new grammar.

6 Reading Lab

In Lessons 3, 6, 9, 12, 15 and 18: a real text with questions (page 5).

7 Speaking games

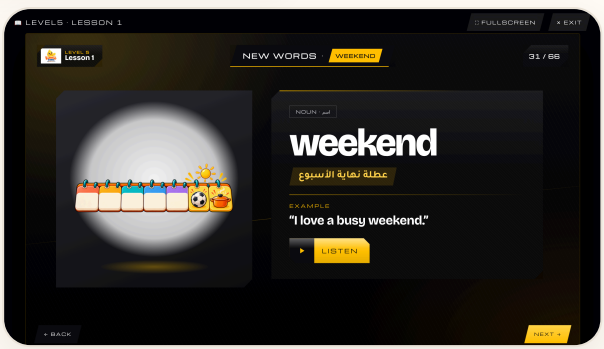

Story Chain, Your Turn and Two Truths & a Lie, all using the lesson's grammar.

8 Challenge, real life and discussion

A final challenge, a link to real life and about five minutes of open discussion.

9 Recap

The lesson's verbs, words and grammar on one page.

A real vocabulary slide from Lesson 1 — picture, Arabic, example sentence and audio

Real reading, every third lesson

Six short illustrated texts across the level, written with the words and grammar your child has already met. Two questions start the conversation before reading. The teacher reads the first part, the students read the second part, then everyone answers questions. Every word your child has already studied glows — tap it to see its Arabic and the lesson it came from — and two or three new words are explained.

After reading, six questions go from Find it (the answer is in the text) to Think (read between the lines) to You (connect it to your own life).

3 The Message I Forgot — Lesson 3
Friends & Phones

6 Two Years Ago in AlUla — Lesson 6
Memories & Places

9 Green Flags Everywhere — Lesson 9
National Day

12 Ziad's Trip to Muscat — Lesson 12
Travel & Culture

15 The Day We Beat Argentina — Lesson 15
Sport & Memory

18 Movie Night in the Majlis — Lesson 18
Family & Film

Four Bonus Classes: how English works

After every four lessons comes a 60-minute Bonus Class. It explains how English really works — sounds, spelling, grammar or where words come from — compares it with Arabic, and practises it with games and creative tasks. At home, your child completes a bonus mission board, and each Bonus Class has its own printable worksheet and cards.

B1 The Three Sounds of -ed and the Old Verbs أصوات -ed الثلاثة والأفعال القديمة

After Lesson 4

The past ending -ed is one spelling with three sounds, /t/, /d/ and /ɪd/, and the last sound of the verb chooses which one. Many irregular verbs are old 'fossils' that show the past by changing the vowel inside the word, a little like Arabic does.

B2 How Stories Are Built: The Story Mountain كيف تُبنى الحكايات: جبل القصة

After Lesson 8

Most stories, in English or in Arabic, climb a similar mountain: a setting, a problem that grows, a climax, and an ending. Linking words are the ropes that hold the parts together.

B3 Background and Action: Was Doing vs Did was الخلفية والحدث: مقابل did doing

After Lesson 12

A story has two layers: the background, filmed like a video (was/were + -ing: It was raining, people were waiting), and the events, taken like snapshots (past simple: the bus arrived). English chooses the form by how we look at the action, not only by when it happened.

B4 Speak Like a Storyteller: The Music of English تكلّم كراوٍ محترف: موسيقى اللغة الإنجليزية

After Lesson 16

Spoken English has a beat: the important words (content words) are strong and the small words (was, were, to, and, of, a, the) become short and weak, often with the sound /ə/. Words link together and good storytellers pause in the right places.

The level test and certificate open after all 20 lessons and all 4 Bonus Classes.

Made for home

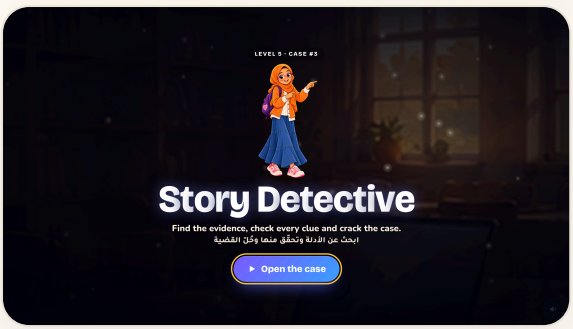

Homework and writing sheets: Independent work at home: vocabulary in context (with one extra word in the box), past-tense grammar with find-and-fix and word order, the conversation or Reading Lab text, and a story of 80-100 words. The writing sheet plans a story from beginning to end and checks every past-tense verb and sequencing word. Answers are printed upside down for self-checking; a parent signs.

Flashcards: Eight cards per sheet: picture, word and word type (verb, noun…) on the front; the Arabic and the lesson's example sentence on the back. Print double-sided, flipping on the long edge, then cut. Your teen can test themselves alone (English to Arabic and back), or anyone at home can quiz them.

Story Detective — How It Works

Story Detective, this level's game

A detective mystery theme covering three kinds of clues: finding the right meaning of a word, judging whether a witness got a translation right, and figuring out what was really said next in an overheard conversation.

How to play

1. Find the evidence: an Arabic word or phrase is shown with three English options -- tap the one that matches its meaning.
2. Verify the clue: a witness claims an Arabic phrase means a certain English word -- your child judges True or False.
3. Witness testimony: two lines of a real overheard conversation are shown, and your child figures out what was really said next from three options. Every confirmed answer gets pinned to the case file as evidence; by the end, the full case file is revealed -- "mystery solved!"

A new round of the game unlocks after every lesson your child finishes, using that lesson's own words — so it is always practice, never random. The Hub adds Memory Match, Word Pop, Word Builder and Balloon Pop for extra word practice.

Progress, Level Test & Certificate

Progress you can see

Your child's page shows every lesson: prep stars, the live class (attended, with the teacher's grade and comment) and the homework score. Totals show lessons finished, attendance, and the average teacher grade. You can open the same page at any time with your child's ID and PIN.
